Replacement of Materials

Replacing a book involves determining that the book is damaged beyond repair or lost. The Collection Development Librarian determines if the book should be replaced. The order slip is completed and marked "replacement." Call numbers are indicated.