UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES

Policy: The Research Center is responsible for the University Archives and collects University records, other organizational records connected with the University, and professional and business papers of persons associated with the University.

1. Documents considered for the collection are: major publications of the University which include: theses, dissertations, Current Sauce, University catalogs, and the Potpourri.

2. Other University records.