

Cammie G. Henry Research Center Events and Activities, 2003-2008

Date	Event	Visitors
12/10/07-2/08	Exhibition on Mardi Gras entitled "Come, See and Pass a Good Time" displayed in ten exhibit cases and three curio cabinets	Stats for Dec. 8/2007 were 25
Saturday, 12/8/07 3:30-5:30 p.m.	Donor Reception of the Patricia R. Lemee Smith Collection.	7
8-12/07	Exhibition on Louisiana authors of the 21 st Century displayed in ten exhibit cases and three curio cabinets	175
4/19/07 5:30-6:30 p.m.	Hosted the Phi Alpha Theta History Honorary Society spring initiation ceremony in the Center	11
3/29/07 4:30 - 5:30 p.m.	The Head Archivist provided library instruction and a seminar on the resources available in the CGHRC on Kate Chopin for students and their English Professor Fredna Stuckey from LeTourneau University, Longview, Texas.	10
3-8/07	Exhibition and reception in the Research Center in honor of donor and former Louisiana Secretary of Department of Environmental Quality, Martha A. Madden displayed in ten exhibit cases and three curio cabinets	135
11/06-3/07	The Head Archivist supervised the pulling and mounting of an exhibition in the Research Center celebrating Louisiana cookbooks, 10 cases and 3 curio cabinets.	148
1/3/07 1:00 - 4:30 p.m.	The Head Archivist provided library instruction and a seminar on the resources available pertaining to Kate Chopin, Caroline Dormon and Clementine Hunter to Dr. Art Williams Louisiana School for Math, Science and the Arts spring special project class.	10
4/06	Hosted the Phi Alpha Theta History Honorary Society spring initiation ceremony in the Center	11
3/13/06 5:30-7:30 p.m.	The Creative Writers Association of Natchitoches requested a special meeting of the association in the Center with an invited speaker Dr. Sybil Kein.	40
1/25/06	Traveling exhibition on two three-fold museum quality board highlighting the theses that written by NSU students and that related to collections from the Center on during the Philia kick-off reception (the NSU undergraduate research initiative).	55
9-12/05	Exhibition in the Research Center celebrating Louisiana's agriculture was displayed in ten exhibit cases and three curio cases	125
10/25/05	Presentation by Head Archivist on Freedmen's Bureau to the	25

	Natchitoches Genealogical Association in the CGHRC.
11/2/05	Traveling exhibition on two three-fold museum quality board concerning the history of sports at NSU for the Watson Library sponsored NSU Quarterback Luncheon	20
Sat.,10/2 2/05, 10:00- 11:00 a.m.	The Head Archivist was invited by Dr. Art Williams of the Louisiana School for the Math Sciences, and the Arts to speak to attendees of a Dormon Symposia on the Dormon Collection in the Center	15
4/05	Hosted the Phi Alpha Theta History Honorary Society spring initiation ceremony in the Center	11
3-8/05	Exhibition celebrating Louisiana's people and places was displayed in the Cammie G. Henry Research Center's ten exhibit cases and three curio cases	119
3/15 11:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m.	Shelia Richmond with the Louisiana Folklife Center and the Louisiana Division of the Arts brought her Louisiana Voices workshop attendees to the Center for bibliographic instruction.	15
8/2005- 12/2005	Exhibition on Louisiana Agriculture displayed in ten exhibit cases and three curio cases.
9/14/04- 12/19/05	Exhibition entitled "The Association for the Preservation of Historic Natchitoches 50 th Anniversary Celebration" was displayed in the ten exhibit cases and three curio cases. Announcements were mailed and a reception in honor of the association was held in the Center	169
1/2005- 8/2005	Exhibition celebrating Louisiana's people and places displayed in ten exhibit cases and three curio cases.
11/30/04 9:00- 11:00 a.m.	Provençal Elementary gifted and talented students from first through eighth grades under the direction of teacher Chris Evans explored the Provençal 1913 tornado and the history of the town of Provençal	13
11/12/04	Head Archivist organized an author symposium in the Center with assistance by Abbie Landry and Gail Kwak. Invitations were sent and publicity completed about the symposium. Dr. Emily Wilson spoke on her latest book entitled No One Gardens Alone: A Life of Elizabeth Lawrence . There was a lunch and book signing. The CGHRC hold the papers of Elizabeth Lawrence	12
11/10/04 5:30-6:30 p.m.	Hosted the Phi Alpha Theta Pi Chapter initiation	15
1/03-1/04	Exhibition entitled "Natchitoches and the Louisiana Purchase" displayed in ten exhibit cases and three curio cases.	203