Remote Access

Reference Department – Watson Memorial Library
9 August 2010

Library Web Page – http://library.nsula.edu

Follow these directions to access the databases from off campus. All databases, electronic resources, and online journals may now be accessed from any location. No user names or passwords are needed aside from the ones listed below.

Access Electronic Resources

NSU Faculty and Staff log in with your email/NSULA user name and password. Any faculty or staff who are unsure about their login information should contact Information Systems at 357-5594.

NSU Students log in with your myNSU user name and password. Go to http://my.nsula.edu/ to activate your account if you haven’t already.

LSMSA students log in with your Student ID Number and PIN. The Student ID Number is 9 digits with no spaces or hyphens and the PIN is your birthdate expressed in 6 digits with no spaces or hyphens (e.g. March 15, 1991 = 031591).

Friends of the Library log in with your social security number and PIN. The SSN is 9 digits with no spaces or hyphens and the PIN is your birthdate expressed in 6 digits with no spaces or hyphens (e.g. March 15, 1991 = 031591).

Library catalogs continue to be available to all users without a password. To search the online catalogs of any or all LOUIS Libraries, visit http://search.louislibraries.org/. Search the NSU Library Catalog for books owned by Watson Library or any NSU library branches.

NetLibrary requires each user to create an individual account – you may create your account in the library or by calling the Reference Desk.
