Listed below are some resources that you may use in your research. Some of the subject areas listed below also have their own user guides, which you may find on the library home page under Library Users’ Guides.

Databases

Biology
- Academic Search Complete
- Agricola
- Biological Abstracts
- JSTOR (Ecology and Evolutionary Biology)

Chemistry
- Academic Search Complete
- American Chemical Society Web Edition (On Campus only)
- Science & Technology Collection

Mathematics
- Academic Search Complete
- JSTOR
- MathSciNet

Medicine
- Academic Search Complete
- Alt-Health Watch
- JSTOR (Health Policy)
- Medline/Pubmed
- Project Muse
- SPORTDiscus (Sports Medicine)

Physics
- Academic Search Complete
- American Institute of Physics
- Science & Technology Collection

Print Reference

Biology
- See Biology User Guide

Chemistry
- See Chemistry User Guide

Mathematics
- See Mathematics User Guide

Medicine
- Merck Manual of Medical Information RC 81 M535 2003 REF
- Gale Encyclopedia of Medicine RC 41 G35 REF 2002

Physics
- Dictionary of Physics QC 5 C56 2000 REF
- Macmillan Encyclopedia of Physics QC 5 M15 1996 REF
- CRC Handbook of Chemistry & Physics QD65 H3 REF

Note: WorldCat is an excellent database to locate books.

Watson Library has two collections of EBooks: NetLibrary and Gale Virtual Reference Library. Both are listed in the online catalog and as searchable databases.